Saturday 16th May
Leonardslee Lakes and Gardens, Horsham,
West Sussex RH13 6PP

Leonardslee has reopened with a new owner and is described as the finest woodland garden in England. Its 240 acres with outstanding scenery covers a 12 month period. In Spring and early Summer it is stunning with all the blooms. For our perfect day we can visit the renowned rock garden, see the rare colony of wallabies and catch sight of the deer roaming free. There are informal areas of refreshments serving light lunches etc. and there is a restaurant in the Grade 11 listed mansion. We will not be able to pay for anything in cash. However, we can exchange cash for a card. This card can be used throughout until all the cash allotted is used up. If we do not use it all, a refund will be given when we leave.

Saturday 13th June
Goddards Green, Cranbrook, Kent TN17 3LR

This 5 acre garden surrounds a beautiful 500 year old clothiers hall (not open) It has mixed planting schemes including fountain and rill water garden, mixed borders, vegetable garden, meadows, orchard and arboretum. Light refreshments are included in the price.

Nearby

Sissinghurst Castle Gardens, Cranbrook, TN17 2AB

Sissinghurst is the world renowned garden created by Vita Sackville-West and her husband Harold Nicolson. So many Head Gardeners have come and gone leaving their own mark. Now another new one restoring, but keeping to Vitas and Harolds idea. Let's see. Cafe, Restaurant, plant and bookshop will be open.

Saturday 11th July
Peckover House and Garden (National Trust)
Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, PE131JR

Peckover House and Gardens owned by the Peckover banking family and passed over to the National Trust in 1947. Its a Georgian town house with a secret garden a gem hidden behind an urban environment. Herbaceous borders, fernery, 17th Century reed thatched barn. Rare trees include fruiting orange. Delicious food is served in the café. However, it may take some time to arrive and maybe long queues. Unless you take your place early I would advise you bring a packed lunch.
